

that generation to charge them with having intended & contemplated the continuance of slavery in the country. If in your many drives Mrs Parker & yourself would sometimes favour us with a call, we should be most happy to express in person our high respect for you

Yours very truly

L. B. Good

Ms. A. 5.1 p. 24